PARTNERSHIP TEACH FELLOWS

Transfer Scholarships for Future Teachers

Join a community of scholars dedicated to improving the lives of children in eastern North Carolina! Partnership Teach Fellows earn bachelor’s degrees in one of the following areas:

- Elementary Education (K-6)
- Special Education
- Middle Grades Education (Language Arts & Social Studies)

Fellows represent the best of the best community college transfer students participating in the Partnership Teach model at East Carolina University. Scholarships and enrichment opportunities prepare the Fellows to return to their home communities to become teachers.

Online Instruction
$10,000 scholarships
Respected degree from the leading producer of teachers in NC

Cohort Model - small class environments
Dedicated advisors and faculty
Enrichment experiences

Selection Criteria:

◊ Completion of prerequisite coursework from a NC community college
◊ Passing Praxis Core Tests (www.ets.org)
◊ Meet minimum GPA requirements
◊ Face to face interview with Partnership Teach Coordinator
◊ Essay demonstrating commitment to teaching
◊ FAFSA Student Aid Report (students may not combine Pell Grants and Partnership Teach Scholarships)
◊ 2 letters of recommendation
◊ Admission to Partnership Teach and ECU

Initial Application Deadline
January 17, 2020

“The convenience of completing my degree online allowed me to continue to work and do things with my children while going to school.”

Candace Hines
Class of 2018

https://education.ecu.edu/partnership

Partnership Teach is open to all community college students who are residents of NC. Partnership Teach Fellows must reside in one of the following counties: Beaufort, Bertie, Cumberland, Chowan, Duplin, Edgecombe, Gates, Greene, Halifax, Hertford, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, Nash, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Sampson, Tyrrell, Vance, Warren, Washington, Wayne, or Wilson.